

Checklist That Parents or Providers Might Use When Assessing Possible Needs for Guardianship/Conservatorship

	No-Most of the time	Not sure	Yes-Most of the time
Receives and evaluates information effectively.
Indicates decisions clearly.
Can purchase and prepare food appropriately.
Can purchase/clean own clothing.
Can bathe/toilet self.
Able to develop supportive relationships with individuals/groups.
Can deal with landlord/housing problems.
Able to say “no” to those who would borrow/demand money or property.
Able to register to vote.
Able to seek employment, understand wages/benefits.
Able to select training/education programs.
Able to select less restrictive living arrangements.
Able to sign consents for special olympics.
Understands when he/she is being “ripped off”.
Able to get/use financial resources to buy real property and to purchase necessary personal property.
Able to budget benefits received, pay bills, etc.
Able to pay on time, keep records of bills for rent, food, services.

(Based on K.S.A. 69-3002, 3018, and 3019)